

Improving the Consumer's Experience

Patient engagement constitutes one of the most important and core capabilities of HealthNautica's eORDers™ platform – covering the entire perioperative space.

Our platform now also supports consumers looking to self-schedule Screening Tests that can be easily made available by Hospitals through their own website.

Positive experiences engender loyalty!

In Support of Self-Scheduling for Screening Tests

- Skip the hassle of having to call central scheduling during office hours and likely be put on hold.
- Instead, go online and easily and quickly:
 - a. Choose a convenient date and time for your screening test
 - b. Reschedule your appointment if necessary
 - c. Cancel your appointment if necessary
- Get appointment reminders for your screening tests

Please call us to schedule an assessment and learn how HealthNautica can help you grow in this consumer centric space.
